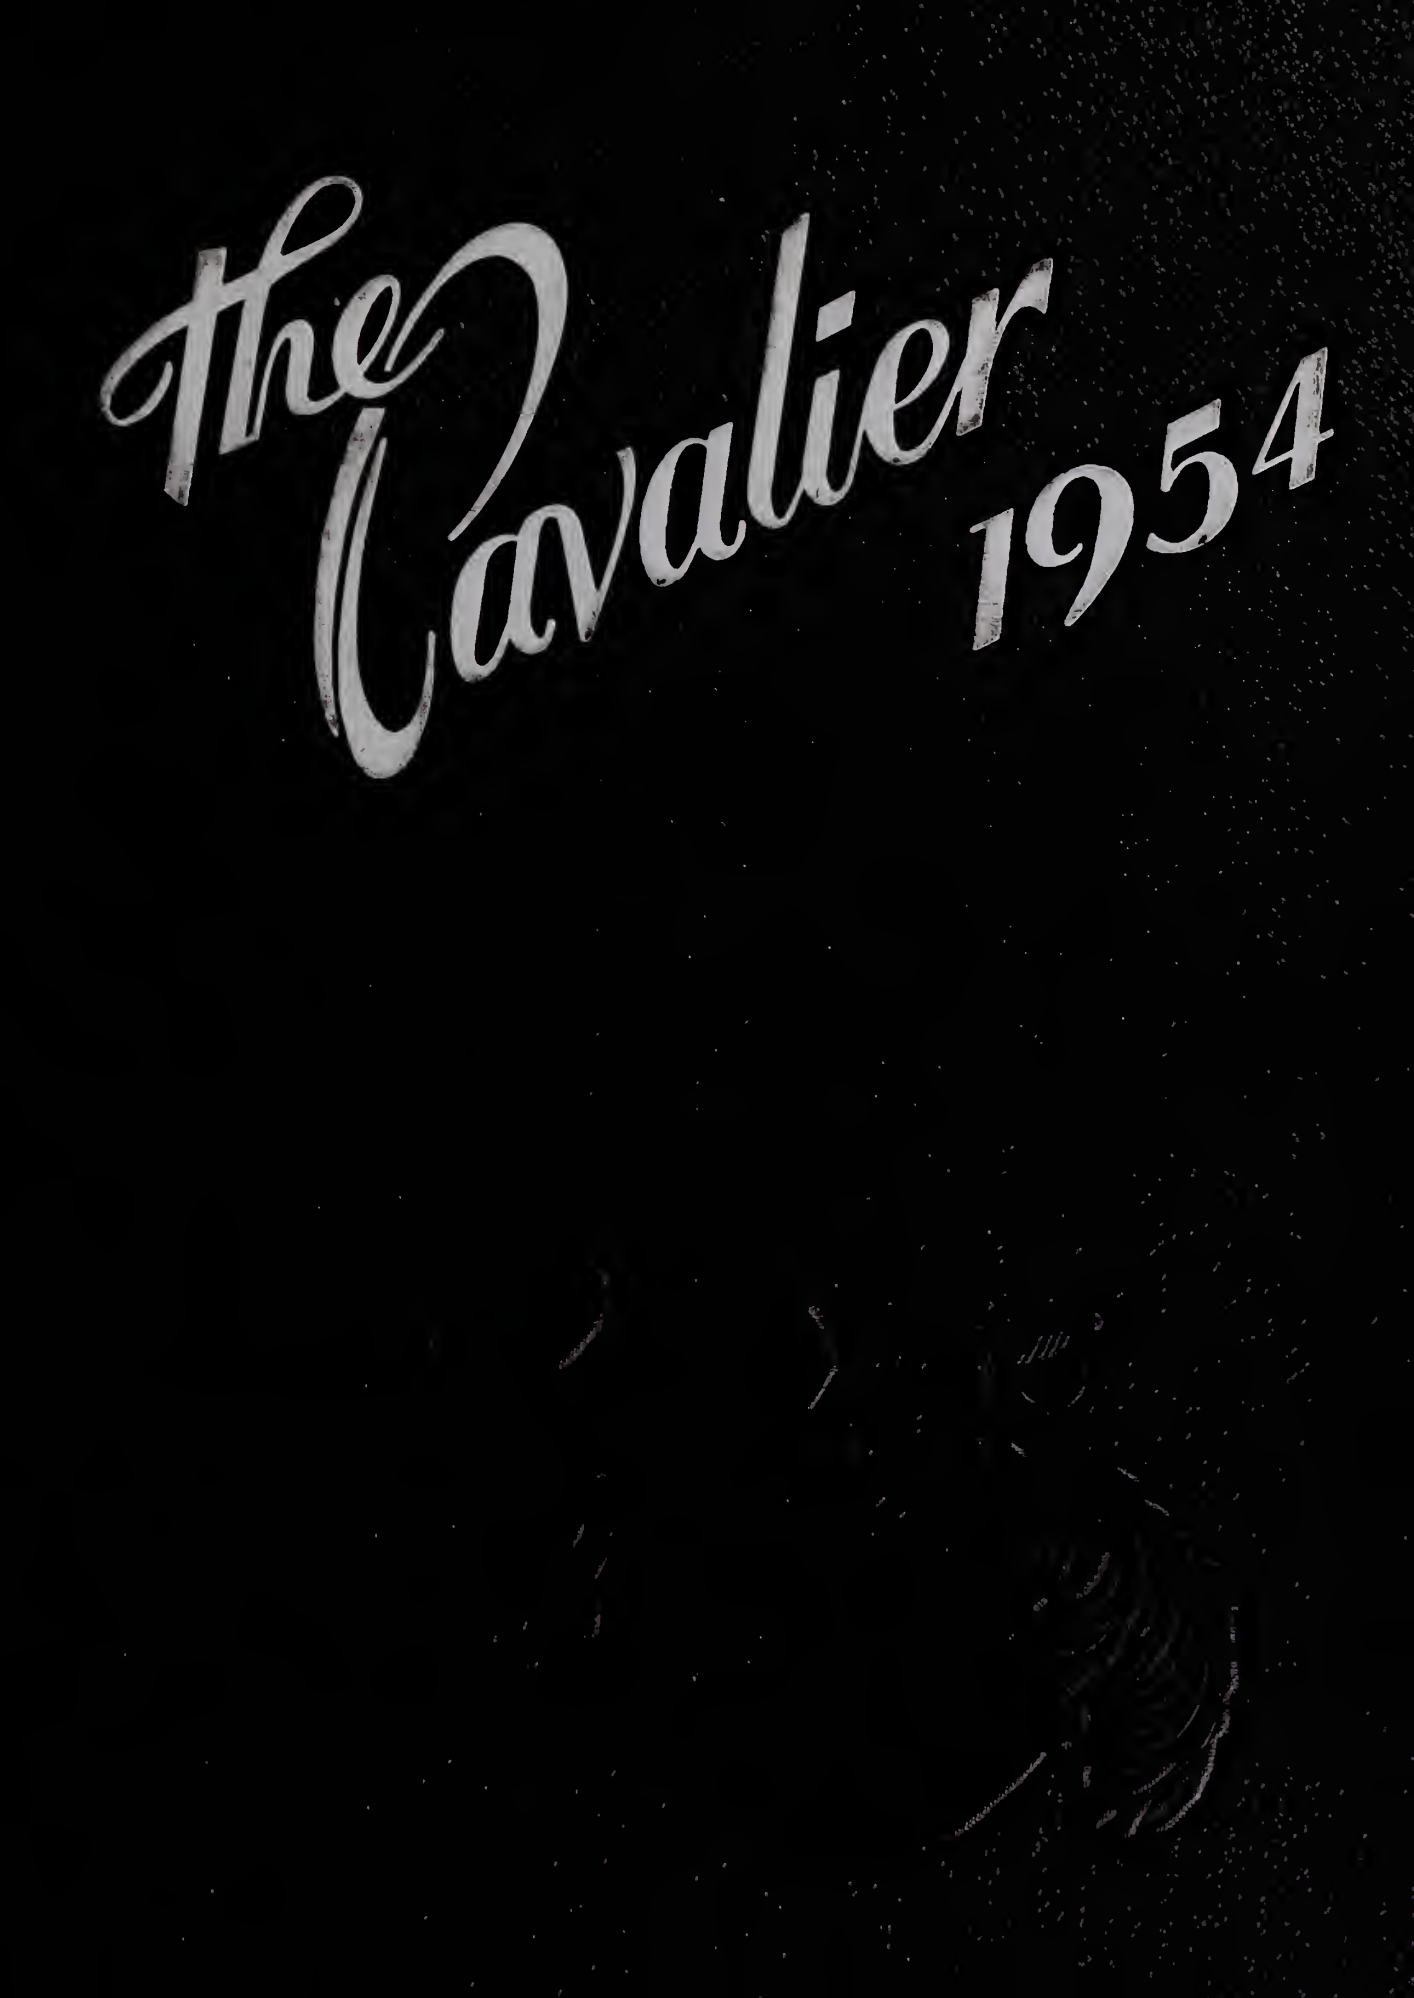
the Cavalier 1954



Preface

WE have reached the halfway mark of the first year of a greater G. W. In September, 1953, George Washington High and Schoolfield High were consolidated. In spite of dire predictions it has worked. The group of outstanding students from both schools pictured on the opposite page had faith that it would.

Dedicated to "Our Teacher Counselor and Friend"

DEAR READER,

The lovely lady whose picture you see above is our idea of a perfect teacher and a wonderful person. MRS. BACON'S zest for helping others, her understanding, and her fine spirit of cooperation are only a few of her genial characteristics. In her classes each member is a special individual and is treated as such. We will long remember and forever cherish our teacher, counselor, and friend, MRS. MARY BACON.

HIGH SCHOOL

A wonderful homecoming included a win for our team and ended with dancing under soft lights to sweet music.

A roaring bonfire, enthusiastic cheerleaders, and shouting students all pointed to a victorious homecoming game.

"Hey, did you bring your uke?" "Somebody's in my seat!" "Oh, who's gonna win?" All this and fifteen rahs sent us on our way.

Gay colors, fast dances, and happy senors and senoritas made the Spanish Fiesta a festive occasion.

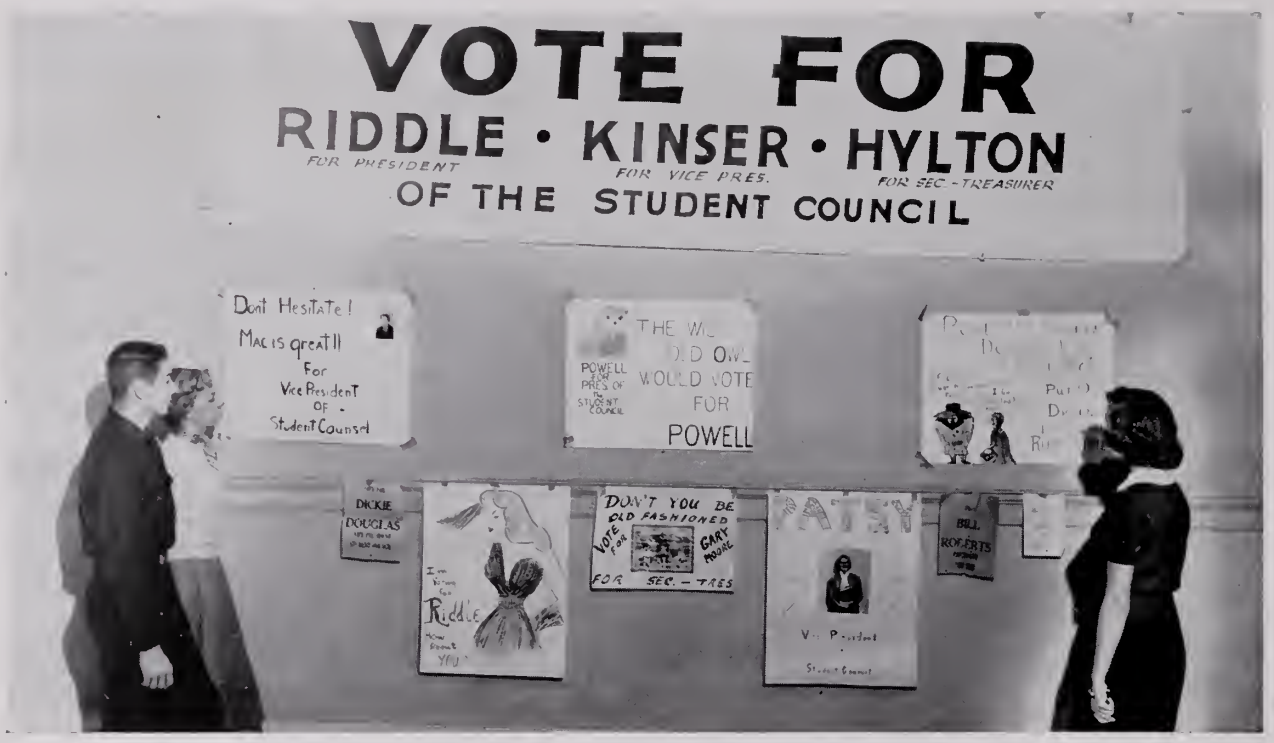
This friendly fight was hectic



The dear ole halls of G. W. were transformed overnight into fascinating art galleries displaying the talents of the many student politicians.

and May brought new excitement.

THE CAVALIER wouldn't be the same without the autographs of all our friends. Nothing can stop these pupils from passing around annuals. The entrance to the library is a favorite spot.

Activities

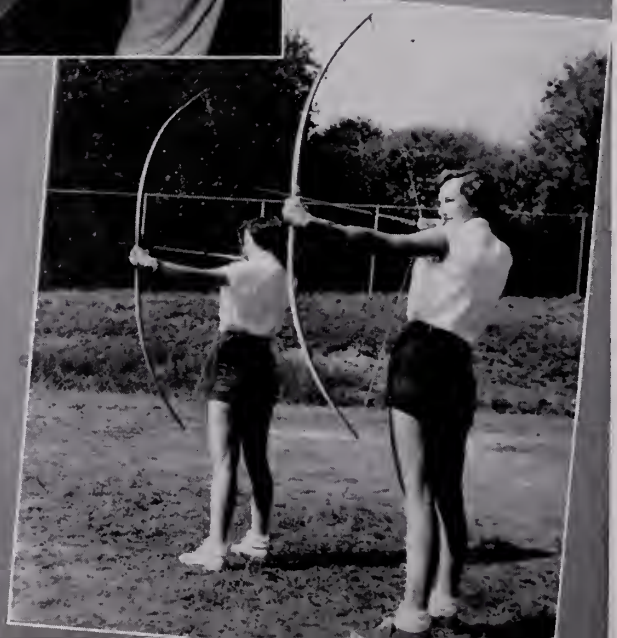
We worked . . .

Taking Spanish includes more than just conjugating irregular verbs. Here Jimmy Flippen and Diane Traylor listen to Miss Richardson's explanation of the colors of the country's flag.

June Vaughn and Charlie Durham find Miss Bacon's classes on Idylls of the King brightened by pictures of England today, especially highlighted by the coronation.

Nothing like good literature (especially the day before book reports) say Patsy and Ray, as long as Miss Johns is there to disperse the well-worn volumes.

With special stress on form in archery Dorothy and Nina Jean seem to be well on the way to showing Robin Hood a thing or two.



. . . and learned

"Friends, Romans and classmates." In public speaking the class is subjected to all kinds of speeches. Here Bobby seems to have the rapt attention of his fellow students.

Our outstanding maestros of the French horn, Jimmy Fleming, and of the Tuba, Sir Doug Biggs, discuss changes in a musical arrangement with Mr. Stryker.

Democracy prevails in Miss Jones' class as President Jerry consults Bulletin Board Chairman Williams and Secretary Eugene about the program for the day.

Under the able guidance of Mrs. Robertson, Joyce Mahaffey is absorbed in the results of her vocational interest tests, but surely it can't be as bad as their expressions indicate.

by trial . . .

Seamstresses of the finest quality, Tamsey Almond and Corrine Lynch, display their handwork. Ready to open up shop, girls?

In math class everyone stays busy. Barbara Sue Johnson and Donald Richardson are sticking to the straight and narrow but what about Patsy Wrenn and Bill Overcash?

Watch the buggie! Barbara just can't stipple the amoeba in the right place but David and Shirley seem to be making much better progress.

Hut and Frances with mouths agape watch Mr. Thomasson in what appears to be one of the seven wonders of the world but the teacher assures them every effect has cause and vice versa.

. . . and error

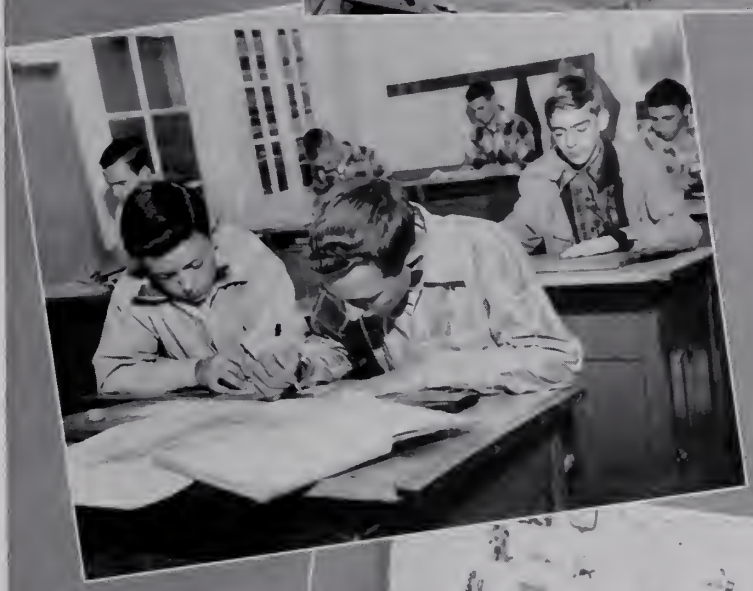
Billy Lakey needs a bit of assistance from his capable instructor but Billy Johnson knows it only takes patience and perseverance and a little elbow grease.



Armed with T square, triangle, pencil and eraser, Dickie Doss and Don Alverson collaborate in conjuring up something from the world of tomorrow.

Adding like this sure beats counting on your fingers, and Jack and Janette can vouch for the fact that, with a little concentration, it's amazing what those office machines can do.

Now, Miss Coppedge, how can you expect Carrington or anybody to hit the right key, much less get the right fingering, with you peering over the shoulder?

These were elected to govern us . . .

First row: Terry Alfriend, Bob Martin, Billy Cook, Bill Stephens, Steve Turner, Freddie Knowles, Charles Rich, Kenneth Passamaneck

Third row: Janey Lea Hardy, Edith Crabb, Nancy Forrester, Mary Jane Evans, Patsy Kinser, Anne Garrett, Nancy Beabeau, Alice Jo Baker, Paula Cochran, Nancy Bradner, Margaret Hurd

STUDENT COUNCIL

The governing body of George Washington High School, the Student Council, is composed of a representative from each of the forty-one homerooms plus the ten members of the Judiciary.

Charity drives such as the Community Chest, Red Cross and the March of Dimes are conducted with homerooms competing against each other. Daily results are posted in clever bulletin board displays in the main hall and the homeroom contributing the most is given special recognition. A "tacky" dance was sponsored to benefit the March of Dimes with an admission of ten cents per twenty-five pounds charged.

Another function of the Student Council is the orientation of new students. They are shown around the building, entertained with a skit, and given an explanation of the various courses offered.

To discuss Student Council duties and activities and bring back new ideas, George Washington sent President Gene Powell, Pete Browning, Esther Alfriend and Anne Garrett to the annual convention of the Southern Association of Student Councils in El Paso, Texas. Delegates also attended the state meeting in Radford. The Student Council played host to the Danville District composed of several surrounding counties. On November 25 two hundred twenty-four delegates talked over the various problems and phases of Student Council work.

The Student Council operates freely, on its own ingenuity, and seeks to express the wishes of the student body to the administration.

JUDICIARY

Playing an important part in the student government at George Washington is the Judiciary. It tries cases which involve any dishonest practices. After reaching a verdict in such cases, the body suggests a suitable punishment to the principal. Four seniors, four juniors and two sophomores, plus the three Student Council officers make up the organization.

To be eligible for the Judiciary the students must have a scholastic average not below eighty and must never have been called before the group for any reason.

The Chatterbox, G. W.'s bi-weekly publication, is one of the two high school papers in Virginia to be awarded both the Quill and Scroll International Honor Rating and the George H. Gallup Award. It has an All-American Honor rating and has been a CSPA medalist winner for many years.

Under the capable guidance of Mrs. Nora Payne Hill, it has efficiently brought us a wide coverage of accurate news and many entertaining features and columns. The students who have taken or are taking journalism write the articles, with longer stories being done by the more experienced staff members.

Miss Rebekah Coppedge helps the students who handle the business details including circulation and advertisement.

. . . and the Cavalier keeps

KIT WHITEHURST
Editor-in-Chief

THE CAVALIER, George Washington's annual, has consistently been judged first place in the C. S. P. A. and S. I. P. A. contests, and last year it was rated first in the state. To continue the good work, this year's staff worked diligently to capture the true Cavalier spirit and record forever the wonderful experiences of our high school days.

In the fall of '53 an assembly program informed the student body of the many features of the yearbook and launched our subscription campaign. The advertising staff began its rewarding work and the Danville merchants responded generously. To raise additional finances to meet the rising cost of publication, we sponsored the Mr. and Miss G. W. contest.

It is our sincere hope that every student will find the '54 Cavalier a bigger and better treasure chest of memories than ever before.

CAVALIER STAFF

Every first, fourth, and sixth period the Cavalier staff could be seen slaving away to meet the deadline: Miss Estes searching hither and yon for some misplaced something, Peggy efficiently pecking away at the typewriter translating the scrambled copy into neat little black letters, Joyce and Rachael writing receipt after receipt, Hill counting money, Jackie and Sue planning strategy to be used on the unsupecting merchants, Norma (between falls) scheduling the pictures to the very split second, Kit doing a little bit of everything, Anne writing and rewriting, William avoiding work on the sports section, everyone determined to create "the best yet."

But all was not work for there were countless gab sessions, numerous "spies" and the "quick" trips to the post office. Our Christmas dinner was the party of parties with sandwiches, potato salad, cake, potato chips, cokes and all the trimmings. The tree nearly touched the ceiling and had decorations galore, even if most of the snow was on the floor. THE CAVALIER picnic at Wildwood in May ended the wonderful times of the '54 staff but the book itself contains memories long to be cherished.

GLEE CLUB

With a song in their hearts the members of the George Washington High School Glee Club lend their voices to various activities in this area. They strive to develop more musical interest in the community and at school.

Among the most active clubs at G. W., the Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Oliver, is called on to sing in assembly on numerous occasions. Also, it has appeared before many Danville clubs and organizations. We can attribute much of the club's success this year to the addition of many members of the Glee Club from Schoolfield High School.

The club's activity is not limited just to the school term. It continues during the summer vacation for those who attend the music festivals throughout the state.

NATIONAL ATHLETIC SCHOLASTIC SOCIETY

The National Athletic Scholastic Society for secondary schools was organized at George Washington in May 1946 by Coach Jerry Quirk and Mr. Christopher. In 1947 Mr. L. G. Wilson was appointed faculty adviser for the organization.

An honorary organization, it is composed of boys who have earned at least one monogram in varsity sports, maintained the average of the school for three consecutive semesters and shown the highest qualities of citizenship and sportsmanship.

The purposes of the society are to develop more outstanding leaders, to promote better scholastic records among athletes, and to develop the standards of sportsmanship by setting good examples for others.

MONOGRAM CLUB

The Monogram Club at George Washington is an honorary society made up of students who have shown outstanding ability in one or more major sports. Cheerleaders and managers who have served for two years are also awarded a monogram. When a student receives a G. W. monogram, he is automatically eligible for admission to the organization, but the decision is up to him.

The most fun is had by old members at the initiation in the fall and the picnic in the spring. The initiation follows the football season when the boys are awarded monograms. It usually consists of a scavenger hunt, which results in fun for both old and new members. Also the new members are required to pick up bottles after basketball games.

The most important event for the Monogram Club is Homecoming. The boys are in charge of the bonfire activities, printing and selling of programs at the game on Friday, and the dance on Saturday. Each year a girl from the senior class is selected to reign as homecoming queen and two others are elected as attendants. Their identities are kept a secret until the night of the game. Then there are plans to be made for the dance on Saturday night when the queen is crowned by the president of the Monogram Club.

The purpose of the club is to promote fine sportsmanship and friendly competition in athletics, uphold the rules of the school, and promote interest in sports at George Washington High School. They have a great deal of influence on the student body and try to use it to the very best advantage.

FOOTBALL TEAM

Boasting the largest team in recent years because of the consolidation, the Cardinals traveled to Salem for the opening game of the 1953 football season. Pryor Millner and Jack Thomas tallied for G. W. but both attempted conversions were wide and Andrew Lewis won 13-12. Returning home for the second game, G. W. tied William Fleming 14-14. Fleming was ahead 14-0 at the half, then the Cardinals came back with Larry Brooks and Thomas accounting for the touchdowns. Again the Cardinals left home, this time to go to Covington where they ran up a score of 20-0 at half-time with the final score 20-13. Next the G. W. boys met the highly favored Glass team. The tables were turned in this game when five out of seven attempted passes by Glass were intercepted with two resulting in touchdowns. The final score was 13-0. This was the annual Shrine Game and was the most elaborate of the season with the many different Shrine groups playing and parading. It was also in this game that G. W. lost one of its starting lineup for the rest of the season when end Jack Taylor broke his leg.

Beginning with the Lynchburg game, the Cardinals hit a victory streak. First, they swamped Roxboro 35-6 with Thomas scoring 18 of the points. The second string saw a great deal of action in this game. Martinsville was next on the Big Red team's list with Thomas and Brooks sharing honors for the 21-7 victory although Brooks was out of the latter part of the game after the loss of a front tooth. It was against Mount Vernon that G. W. suffered its second defeat of the season 0-12.

Homecoming brought a large crowd to League Park to see the Cards edge out Roanoke 21-20. One of the outstanding plays was a running pass from Buck Hundley to James Seamster for a touchdown. The victory made the Homecoming week-end a glorious one.

Charlottesville was next on the Cards list with Thomas scoring the only touchdown. The kick was not good and G. W. defeated Lane 6-0. Before the game Thomas hurt his leg and was in for only a few plays.

The last game of the season brought Hopewell here for the Thanksgiving tilt. Neither of our conversions was good and Hopewell won 13-12.

Honors were bestowed on G. W. when Calvin Fowler and Jack Thomas were chosen on the All Western-District and All State teams. Jack was captain of the All State team and also placed on the All Southern team. Calvin was voted the most valuable player by his teammates and received the trophy from Coach Wilson. The entire season was a good one and the Cards tied with Jefferson of Roanoke for the Western-District Championship.

In an assembly December 18, the following boys received monograms for the '53 season: Calvin Fowler, Sonny Kingoff, Gene Powell, David Allen, Charles Buck, Jim Gravely, Kenneth Payne, Bobby Sizer, Bill Roberts, Larry Brooks, D. G. Carter, Buck Hundley, Pryor Millner, Jim Melvin, Jack Thomas, Richard White, Jack Barnett, Bobby Hill and James Seamster. Managers Jimmy Woody and Tom Bowles also received monograms.

COACHES PALADINO, EL WILSON, GURTIS

We salute our gridiron stars of tomorrow

First row: Johnny Moore, Carson Womack, Clinton Pruitt, Richard Pretty, Prentice Kinser, Virgil Grow, James Turner, Henry Bourne
Second row: Joe Toler, Don Kent, Ronnie Bryant, Billy Jones, Billy Norman, Peyton Eggleston, Julian Clifton, David Shultz, Jerry Nunn
Third row: Leon Hawker, Leon Lewis, Bobby Cheek, Ronald Chaney, James Crawford, John Matney, Terry Wilmouth, Bobby Stone, Kenneth Mays, Jackie Jester, manager.

Our photographer catches an exciting moment in the Jayvee's game with Martinsville.

The G. W. Baby Cardinals under the leadership of Coach Larry Paladino had a highly successful year with five wins and one loss. Most of the success was due to practicing with the varsity from which they learned many of the finer points of the game. The outstanding game of the season was with Martinsville with Lewis, Pruitt, Hawker, Chaney and Clifton showing good prospects for the varsity next season.

The "mule train," Leon Lewis, led the Jayvees in touchdowns in the past season with forty-eight points. Outstanding on the line were Kinser and Turner at guard; Stone and Crawford at tackle; Grow and Wilmouth at end and Moore at center. Reserves that saw action were Cheek, Towler, Tickle, Eggleston and Norman.

The teams that the baby Cards were victorious over were Reidsville, in two games, highly favored Lynchburg, Helena and Martinsville. They suffered one defeat by the latter.

These cover the courts with speed . . .

Standing: Jimmy Woody, Jackie Phillips, Sam Worley, Jimmy Seamster, Jack Barnett, Richard Fitts, Van Holton, Coach Al Mathes
Kneeling: Dickie Douglas, Pryor Millner, Nelson Link, Bobby Hill, Lawrence Brooks, Leon Hawker

The G. W. Cardinals had another very successful campaign this year under the direction of Coach Al Mathes.

The outstanding game of the season was the 52-38 upset over highly favored E. C. Glass on our home court. However, E. C. Glass, seeking revenge, edged out G. W. in a close defensive game by a basket in the last two seconds of the return game, 29-27.

With the consolidation of G. W. and Schoolfield, Coach Mathes built the team into one of the foremost teams of the Western District. James Seamster, Jackie Phillips, Dickie Douglas, Sam Worley and Pryor Millner were the starting five with Richard Fitts, Nelson Link, Larry Brooks, Jack Barnett, Bobby Hill, Van Holton and Leon Hawker making up the remainder of the squad.

As this publication goes to press both Seamster and Worley have scored more than 200 points apiece and each of the remaining three of the starting five has topped the 100 point mark.

Next year, due to graduation, the Cagers will lose the skill of "Big Sam" Worley, James Seamster, Dickie Douglas and Richard Fitts.

As the scoreboard stands:

G W	57—Roxboro 42	G W	55—Salem 44
G W	48—Roxboro 43	G W	56—Covington 43
G W	70—St. Paul's 47	G W	57—Hopewell 60
G W	45—Craddock 43	G W	57—Halifax 44
G W	78—Hopewell 52	G W	46—Martinsville 59

Standing: Tommy Dalton, Donnie Cole, Ronald Chaney, Bobby Cheek, Maury Matthews, Ronnie Bryant, Randy Beale
Kneeling: J. B. Shepard, Gerald Lewis, Richard Haymore, David Crawford, Richard Pretty, David Shultz

Our Jayvees could not equal the score of the regulars, but they showed promise in the game with Lynchburg.

The Junior Varsity Squad, coached by Larry Paladino, proved that teamwork is the key to success. They were able to rack up double wins over Roxboro, Halifax and Hopewell. Their most satisfactory game was when they edged out the Martinsville JV's. This team had gone undefeated for four years. The big crowds led by the energetic Junior Varsity cheerleaders did much to boost the morale of the team. Our coaches are confident that next year the work of these boys will increase the chances for a championship team.

The starting line for the young Cardinals were Haymore and Crawford at guard, Chaney and Matthews as forwards and Cheek at center. Leading the scoring for the Baby Cards were David Crawford and Bobby Cheek, with Richard Haymore showing outstanding ability at handling the ball. Maury Matthews was chosen captain for the season before the final game. A large number of boys went out for the squad, providing more and better reserves.

Speed is our motto on the track

First row: Jim Gravely, Jack Thomas, Roy Upchurch, Jimmy Melvin, Wayne Scearce, Calvin Fowler, Bill Hall, Jack Taylor
Second row: Charles Buck, Ray Beale, Van Holton, Pryor Millner, Sonny Kingoff, G. W. Ward, Bobby Marks, Al Bailey, Leon Lewis
Third row: Jimmy Robertson, Sam Arnett, Jackie Jester, Tommy Bowles

George Washington's masters of the diamond clubbed their way to a near perfect season with only one defeat in thirteen starts during the regular campaign. With the Western District Championship to their credit, the Redbirds entered the State Tournament after school had closed in June. Although they lost their first game, the Cardinals settled down to take the remainder of their contests and, for the first time in many seasons, brought home the mythical award.

After winning the deciding game 1-0, Charlie Smiley, G. W.'s ace hurler, was considered by a major league scout, but nothing is definite because they are not allowed to offer a contract until a boy graduates.

Expected to measure highly in the coming season are Charlie Smiley, Stanley Adkins, Charlie Hubbard, and Buck Hundley on the mound; Jackie Phillips, Dickie Douglas, Leon Hawker, Larry Brooks, and Sonny Williams in the infield; Gene Parker, David Shultz, Richard Fitts, and Charlie Smiley in the outfield. A captain will not be chosen until the season opens.

Just as in past years, Lefty Wilson has continued his fine job as coach of the baseball team. His ability to bring out the best in his players has been rewarded time after time by the fine showing of his teams. His skill is respected by his opponents throughout the state as he has piloted many teams to victory.

Undoubtedly, this was G. W.'s finest season in many years as to the state record. However, in '51 they had an undefeated year but no state meeting was held. We congratulate you, players and coach!

Our teams win with a stroke of the club

1. Jimmy Flippen 2. Ray Johnson 3. Raymond Mustain 4. Tommy Munford
5. Frank Hawkins 6. Tommy Hughes

. . . and a stroke of the racket

These volley ball games, photographed one afternoon, are only one phase of the intramural sports.

The Girls' Athletic Association Council is formed of representatives from each of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade homerooms. From these girls officers are elected to serve at the head of the council.

Each girl in George Washington who participates in at least one of the intramural sports —basketball, volley ball, table tennis, shuffle board, or softball—is automatically a member of the G. A. A. Taking the place of a girls' varsity basketball team, the intramural program is in its first year at G. W. and still in the infant stage. A point system has been set up by which a girl receives credit for participation in the intramural contests. After she has accumulated a total of five hundred points, she will be awarded an intramural monogram. The G. A. A. hopes to become an active part of the school program in the future years.

To the right is a scene from two of the intramural volley ball games. This picture was taken during the finals.

On the sixteenth of December the Glee Club presented selections from Handel's "Messiah" for interested citizens of Danville.

"The Ghost Train," staged by the Dramatic Club, played two performances with Nathan Patterson and Kay Gardner as the romantic leads.

Charlotte McGhee, Peggy Farris, and Ramona Smith, all active in F. H. A. work, examine the rug that Corrine Lynch is making.

Remember the Monogram Club initiation? Here poor blind Charlie Hubbard begs a pittance from theater goers. Total collected six cents.

ADVERTISING STAFF

With a friendly smile and the thought, "you had better give me that ad," twenty-one eager young salesmen start out to try their tactics on the local merchants. Having as a motto "never let a negative answer discourage you," the ad seekers were successful in securing approximately 225 advertisements.

Led by Sue Brown, advertising manager and Jackie Hilliard, assistant manager, the one big team consisted of the following: Anne Garrett, Dorothy Jeffries, Carolyn Knick, Jeanette Stinson, Wendy Vanderwerff, Buddie Cochran, Anna Glenn Cox, Cindy Gatewood, Diane Traylor, Lois Moore, Nancy Craig Williams, Cele Gourley, Anne Thompson, Betty Motley, Patsy Evans, Beverly Gooch, Betty Jane Wyatt and Mary Jane Evans.

To express our appreciation for the support and fine cooperation of our Danville businessmen we say, "Patronize our advertisers."

look to the future

Time was when a young person just out of school looked everywhere for a job before he considered industry. Usually a production job was the last resort.

Today most young men and women look at industry differently. They know that in these years of corporate expansion and modernization there is an increasing demand for new ideas, fresh imaginations, and continually improved management.

Then, too, a position in industry now means prestige, and good earnings. It offers the right future to young people with ability and capacity for diligent work.

A broad avenue of opportunity is open to you in present day production. Scan it carefully when it comes time to decide on your career.

earn while you learn!

Your pay starts from the first day at the telephone company — even while you're learning your new job!

That's one reason so many young girls choose a telephone job when they finish school. They don't need experience to get this good job — and they're paid while they learn a skill that'll always be useful.

Find out more about the variety of telephone jobs from your high school counselor — or come in and see us when you finish school.
